

DROP-IN EVENT

Holiday Have A Go Day

Join us for a free program to try new activities with Power To Be.

WHAT: Join us for a day of stories, campfires, and adventure. Activities available to try may include hiking, with and without a TrailRider, nature adventures and more.

WHO: People who are interested in a day of fun and opportunity to try new activities with Power To Be. This event is open to all current Power To Be participants and their families, as well as new people interested in learning more about Power To Be.

WHEN: Sunday, December 8th, 11 a.m. - 3 p.m.

WHERE: Prospect Lake, 4633 Prospect Lake Rd.

DETAILS: Please wear sturdy shoes and clothing for all weather (rainy, sunny or cold), and clothing for activity (layers, no cotton, good for air and water temperatures). This is a special drop-in program, and we ask that all children and youth under the age of 19 be accompanied by adult support as our Power To Be staff will be busy ensuring everyone is enjoying the different activities.

RSVP: No RSVPs are required to attend. Activities will run on a rotating basis and you can sign in upon arrival.
